

Summary

Today's sermon focused on the theme of wisdom versus foolishness, as illustrated in Proverbs 26. The pastor emphasized the importance of recognizing and avoiding foolish behavior, both in ourselves and in others. Key points included the characteristics of a fool, such as denying God, not considering the advice of others, being lazy, and not controlling their tongue. The sermon also highlighted the need for discernment in our relationships and the importance of surrounding ourselves with wise, God-fearing individuals.

Intro Prayer

Heavenly Father, we come before You with open hearts and minds, ready to receive Your wisdom. We ask that You guide our discussion today and help us to be receptive to what You want us to learn. May Your Holy Spirit move within us, revealing areas where we need to grow and giving us the courage to make those changes. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Ice Breaker

What is one piece of advice you received that you initially thought was foolish but later realized was wise? Key Verses 1. Proverbs 26:1-12 2. Psalms 14:1 3. Proverbs 1:7 4. Luke 10:10-11

Questions

1. What stood out to you the most in today's sermon?
2. How do you define foolishness and wisdom in your own words?
3. Can you share an experience where you had to walk away from a foolish situation?
4. Why do you think it's important to surround ourselves with wise, God-fearing individuals?
5. How can we gently correct someone who is acting foolishly without causing offense?
6. What are some practical ways to ensure we are not falling into foolish behaviors ourselves?
7. How do you discern whether someone is influencing you positively or negatively?
8. What role does prayer play in seeking wisdom and avoiding foolishness?

Life Application

This week, take a moment each day to pray for wisdom and discernment in your interactions. Identify one area in your life where you might be acting foolishly and make a conscious effort to change that behavior.

Key Takeaways

1. A fool denies the existence of God and does not seek His wisdom.
2. Surrounding ourselves with wise individuals helps us grow in our faith.
3. Foolish behavior often leads to negative consequences and punishment.
4. We must be cautious about who we trust and follow.
5. Jesus provides the ultimate example of wisdom and discernment.

Ending Prayer

Lord, we thank You for the wisdom You have imparted to us today. As we go our separate ways, help us to apply what we have learned and to seek Your guidance in all our decisions. May we be a light to those around us, showing Your love and wisdom in our actions. Protect us from foolishness and lead us in Your righteous path. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.